

Submission guidelines

Typical Girls presents 'Typical,' an inclusive issue exploring the intersections of gender and sexuality in contemporary society. For the first time we invite people of all genders to contribute work, stories and experiences.

- Please send an 100 word outline of a potential idea OR examples of work you would like to submit by the 21st of January 2018.
- If submitting written work, please keep it under 500 words.
- TG accepts exclusive content only. This means if your submitted work has been previously been published in print or online we are unfortunately unable to accept it.
- We will notify you by March 2018 if your submission has been successful.

- Email subject as piece title followed by your name e.g. 'The Female Body - Jo Harvey'
- Email documents to submissions@typicalgirlsmagazine.co.uk
- Please use wetransfer.com for larger documents

- Formatting specifications; Word or Pages file, Arial font, pt size 12, document name as title eg. 'The Female Body - Jo Harvey.docx'
- Image & photography specifications; 300ppi minimum, jpeg format, image name as photo credit eg. 'JoHarvey1.jpeg'

- If you have any problems with file requirements or submission guidelines please email chani@typicalgirlsmagazine.co.uk

We look forward to receiving your submission!
